

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Citizen volunteer action is a core, shared tradition of our nation; and,

Whereas, Millions of volunteers in the United States work in their community, including Long Term Health Care Facilities, utilizing their time and talent daily to make a real difference in the lives of people; and,

Whereas, All citizens – both young and old, families, work-place volunteers; and professionals have something to contribute as a volunteer; and,

Whereas, Our communities benefit from any volunteer action no matter how big or small; and,

Whereas, Volunteers are vital to our future as a caring and productive nation and world:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to join me as we recognize our shared traditions of volunteering, and commit or recommit to volunteer involvement as a unifying force to build stronger communities.

VOLUNTEER WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.
